

The church can survive decline. It cannot survive pretending.

Why are people leaving the church — and what are they really leaving? James Bell names the wounds honestly: purity culture, abuse, political captivity, a domesticated Jesus. He walks the path through doubt and points toward reconstruction — a book for the one deconstructing, the parent watching it happen, and the pastor in the aftermath.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

James Bell is the lead pastor of First Baptist Church of Fenton, Michigan, and the founder of the Pastors Connection Network. He came to faith from atheism, was raised without a father, and is the father of five sons. He is the author of more than twenty books.
