

The Attributes of God: Who God Is

What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us.

Text. Selected texts on the character of God

Good for. A church whose God has quietly grown too small

The arc. We do not get to invent God, and the cure for a shrunken faith is a recovered vision of who He actually is. This series sets the holiness, sovereignty, love, faithfulness, and grace of God side by side until the hearer is brought low and lifted up at once.

1. Holy, Holy, Holy

Isaiah 6:1-8

Big idea. The holiness of God undoes the prophet before it sends him, because no one sees that throne and remains the same.

Aim. To restore the hearer's reverence before a God who is not safe.

Notes

2. The God Who Reigns

Psalms 115:1-18

Big idea. Our God is in the heavens and does all that He pleases, while the idols of human hands can do nothing at all.

Aim. To rest the hearer on a God who actually rules the world they fear.

Notes

3. God Is Love

1 John 4:7-19

Big idea. Love is not merely something God does but who He is, proven by sending His Son as the offering for our sins.

Aim. To anchor the hearer's certainty of love in God's character, not their performance.

Notes

4. Great Is Your Faithfulness

Lamentations 3:19-33

Big idea. In the ruins of everything lost, the mercies of God are new every morning because His faithfulness does not depend on ours.

Aim. To give the hearer a faithfulness to lean on when their own is gone.

Notes

5. Rich in Mercy

Ephesians 2:1-10

Big idea. God, being rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ while we were dead, so that grace alone gets the credit.

Aim. To leave the hearer astonished that they were saved while they were unable to save themselves.

HOW TO USE THIS SERIES

These are starting points, not scripts. Each series gives you the arc, the divisions, and a working aim for every sermon, but the breakdown here is scaffolding you will take down once the text has done its own work in you. Read the whole book before you preach the first week of it. Let the passage divisions teach you where the seams actually are.

The text sets the agenda. Not the felt needs you arrived with, not the outline that looks clean on a slide, not the application you already know you want to land. Sit under the passage long enough for it to surprise you, and then preach what it says rather than what you planned. A big idea you did not have to fight for is usually one the text did not give you.
